THIS APPLICATION IS SUBJECT TO WITHDRAWAL FROM ISSUE AT THE INITIATIVE OF THE OFFICE OR UPON PETITION BY THE APPLICANT. SEE 37 CFR 1.313 AND MPEP 1308.

THE ISSUE FEE AND PUBLICATION FEE (IF REQUIRED) MUST BE PAID WITHIN THREE MONTHS FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS NOTICE OR THIS APPLICATION SHALL BE REGARDED AS ABANDONED. THIS STATUTORY PERIOD CANNOT BE EXTENDED. SEE 35 U.S.C. 151. THE ISSUE FEE DUE INDICATED ABOVE DOES NOT REFLECT A CREDIT FOR ANY PREVIOUSLY PAID ISSUE FEE IN THIS APPLICATION. If the SMALL ENTITY is shown as YES, verify your current SMALL ENTITY status:

A. If the status is the same, pay the TOTAL FEE(S) DUE shown above.

Examiner's Amendment

6. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
7. Note, the claim set from the supplemental amendment filed on March 24, 2011 is the most recent claim set.
8. The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 57 (New). The system of claim 56 ~~55~~, wherein the first computer system is further configured to store regulatory data relating to waste processing and waste components, and wherein the second computer system is further configured to generate regulatory reports relating to the waste processing of the waste components produced by the waste producing entity.

Reasons for Allowance

9. Regarding the claimed terms, Examiner notes that a “general term must be understood in the context in which the inventor presents it.” In re Glaug, 283 F.3d 1335, 1340, 62 USPQ2d 1151, 1154 (Fed. Cir. 2002). Therefore, Examiner must interpret the claimed terms as found on pages 1-33 of the specification. Clearly almost all the general terms in the claims may have multiple meanings. So where a claim term “is susceptible to various meanings... the inventor’s lexicography must prevail.” Id. An exception to this rule is where “means for” language is used. Using these definitions for the claims, the claimed invention was not reasonably found in the prior art.

10. The closest prior art of record is Tipton et al. (US 6,097,995) and Embutsu et al. (US 5,699,525).

11. The prior art of record discloses a conventional hazardous materials and waste reduction management system.

12. The prior art of record, however, does not teach at least these elements of claim 25:

a. Wherein a waste service network includes the plurality of vendors... set of vendors.

13. The prior art of record, however, does not teach at least these elements of claim 26:

b. Wherein the set of vendors from the plurality of vendors... based on the comparison.

14. The prior art of record, however, does not teach at least these elements of claim 30:

c. A sensor located... requires waste management service.

15. The prior art of record, however, does not teach at least these elements of claim 33:

d. Wherein the first computer system... waste producing entity for each item.

16. The prior art of record, however, does not teach at least these elements of claim 38:

e. Wherein the first computer system... waste producing entity.

17. The prior art of record, however, does not teach at least these elements of claim 39:

f. Receiving a waste processing service request from a waste producing entity.

18. Yet even if the missing claimed elements were found in a reasonable number of references, a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made would not have been motivated to include these missing elements in an embodiment of the prior art disclosures because traditionally a hazardous materials and waste reduction management system does not directly interact with a vendor, who is selected based on vendor capabilities and entity profile data, to provide a waste processing service request (see Board Decision mailed on November 19, 2010 p 10-11).

19. Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
